starting on the southwest corner as row one and north to end and back to south end and north and etc. Deeded to the Jackson Prairie Grave yard Society by Jonas Twitchell in 1862

Jonas and Malinda Twichell

Jonas Twitchell bought the 39 acres of a 40 acre plot that Gideon Langdon had entered. One acre was set aside for the grave of Mrs. Langdon, who died in 1832. Jonas paid $20 an acre in about 1847. The acre with the grave of Mrs. Langdon is beginning of Jackson Prairie Cemetery. The Acre fills with early graves some marked and some are not. It ran over a few an acres. In 1850 Jackson Prairie Grave Yard Society was organized. Jonas Twitchell deeded the cemetery over to the Society in 1850. The original deed, hand written is in the Joyce Library, Orland, Indiana. Leadership of the past and present did a very good job. In 2004, Wayne Wells responsibly carries this on. A new addition was purchased from William Lincoln and Marion Robert Lincoln whose farm joined on the north side. The Flags wave over graves of those brave Veterans, of the war of 1812 to Vietnam in well kept cemetery.

John and brother Jacob were the frist to settle in Stueben Co., Indaina But second to register thier claim west half of the sothwest quarer of Section 5 on September 27 1831. The suggestion of John Stayner that the Township be named Jackson after Andrew Jackson. The first child born was Zephaniah Stayner born 27 April 1832. The first marriage was Srah and Nancy Stayner's Bother James Huntsman to Hannah Davis was also the first teacher. The first to die in 1832, was the wife of Gideon Langdon the first to registered his claim, 17 September 1831.
